Weekly Update From Sam Yoon

From the Office of City Councilor At-Large
Sam Yoon

Week Ending June 17, 2006

Dear Reader,

The purpose of this e-mail update is to keep you informed of legislative issues at the City Council, current events, and community news.

As the midway point of the year approaches, I could not help but to reflect on the many experiences that have made my five months in office pleasurable, challenging and certainly, educational.

As issues such as the city budget, affordable housing and public safety continue to require our community's attention, I urge residents of Boston to bring forth ideas and concerns so that the process of change is truly all inclusive.

And thanks to all of you who have helped my transition into the Council. Sharing your knowledge and experience has been a tremendous benefit to my learning. Equal thanks to my constituents who motivate me to work, be creative and remain solution driven.

Enjoy this issue and feel free to contact my office with questions or comments!

FY2007-FY2011 Capital Plan Budget Neighborhood by Neighborhood

As many of you know, I have been hosting a series of neighborhood budget talks to inform residents and solicit feedback on the city's budget. These budget talks have been very important and reviewing the Capital Plan for your neighborhood represents the substance of our discussions.

As a City Councilor, one of the most significant responsibilities I own is voting on the proposed city budget. It is also my responsibility to inform you as I learn more about the budget and to learn from you as you inform me about your community needs.

Please select your neighborhood below to review the

Councilor Yoon's Office Accepting Donations For Nguyen Family Funeral
Costs

The violence in our neighborhoods has our whole attention.

19-year-old Nhuan Nguyen was murdered last week in Dorchester. I spent some time with the Nguyen family, offering condolences and sharing their grief.

I have opened my office to help facilitate payment arrangements for funeral services for Nhuan. Please contact my office should you like to assist or send donations directly to address below.
