Dear Sam,

Thank you for taking the time to review this update. There is plenty to report from City Hall and from the community.

Budget season is well underway. As you know Budget Hearings began in April and will continue until the Council votes on the Capital Plan and Operating Budget in mid-June.

I have encouraged for your input throughout the budget process and many of you have responded. I appreciate the letters and emails and I will continue to learn about your priorities and listen to your ideas.

Please remain involved and remember, you can also follow the hearings from home on Comcast Channel 51 or on-line @ <http://www.cityofboston.gov/citycouncil/live.asp>.

As always, please feel free to contact my office with questions or comments.

Enjoy this update,
